Projekt Organizer(s) Since 1956, under the roof of the Protestant Youth "Ecumenical Youth Services (EYS)" held. EYS is a volunteer work camp program, following the tradition of the Ecumenical International work camps, developed and organized by the Youth Council of the World Council of Churches (WCC) after World War II.

International Youth Work International encounters, exchange programs, and other types of projects in international youth work open-up cross-cultural fields of experience to young people in which they can actively and responsibly work towards understanding themselves, as well as people from other cultures, and societal topics.

Project description The Protestant Cemetery "Luisenkirchhöfe" in Berlin is an area with many sites of historic interest. The volunteers did cultural heritage preservation like the cleaning and painting old fences and the renovation of an old graveyard wall. Tombs and sculptures were cleaned. Plants were cut, weeded, planted. Apart from that the group did the housekeeping and cooking and designed their free time autonomously.
