

An eventful summer 2024

Towards new experiences through voluntary leadership of an international camp / youth community service

The Ecumenical Youth Services (EYS) are planning international youth camps in the summer of 2024 and offer you the opportunity to volunteer as a teamer.

EYS camps are work assignments for young people (18 - 26 years) from all over and the world. Through camp participation, young people can engage in meaningful, socially relevant projects for 2 weeks and also get a variety of opportunities for international exchange. The 1st Ecumenical International Reconstruction Camp took place in France in 1947.

You

- Are 18 - 29 years old and
- Are interested in leading a 2-week camp with approx. 10 participants as part of a team
- You can communicate in German/English.
- Enjoy approaching other people, cultures and ways of living
- You like to work in a team
- Get along with less sleep for 2 weeks

This is what you have to expect:

- Participation in a preparatory seminar
- Arrival 2 days before the start of the camp
- A 2-week camp with an international group of approx. 10 participants
- The follow-up of the camp

Concrete tasks of you and your team are:

- Be the contact person for the camp participants and the camp partner on site.
- Preparation and implementation of leisure activities (excursions, games, ...)
- Developing rules with the group
- Accompany group processes
- Organising the daily routine
- Planning grocery shopping
- Active participation in the camp work
- Administration and accounting of the finances during and after the camp

What we offer you:

- An ecumenical, international group with nice committed young people
- The possibility to participate in meaningful projects through voluntary work and to gain experience in the voluntary leadership of a camp.
- Participation in the free preparatory seminar (Fri, May 31st – Sun, June 2nd, 2024) and several online meetings via Zoom
- Subsidising the travel costs for the seminar up to a maximum of 95,00€ (for people from Germany) or 120€ (for people from outside Germany)
- Assumption of the travel costs for the camp
- Insurance at the camp
- A training supervisor flat rate of 200,00€ for the camp
- Recognition through a certificate
